Case Management Order No. 1, which was entered on January 29, 2002 and deals with deposition discovery from corporate defendants in Section V (G), is amended by adding the following new Section V (G) (11):

(11) Depositions of Corporate Defendants. Depositions in the MDL of defendant corporate representatives have been taken in such a way as to eliminate the inefficiency of repeating depositions applicable to many cases. In furtherance of this goal: (1) all further depositions of defendant corporate representatives shall be videotaped; and (2) no deposition of a past or present employee of an MDL defendant can be taken that was not taken during the period allotted by the MDL court for discovery of such defendant unless by agreement of the parties or upon motion and a showing of good cause.

1 DATED this 23rd day of April, 2004.
